NCAE Congratulates Cooper on Election Victory
North Carolinians Elect Roy Cooper to U.S. Senate

Raleigh, NC - The North Carolina Association of Educators (NCAE) is proud to congratulate former North Carolina Governor Roy Cooper on his election to the United States Senate.

“We are ecstatic to congratulate Roy Cooper on becoming North Carolina’s next Senator. He has been a tireless advocate for public schools, educators, and our students. Time and time again Cooper has proven that he’s willing to put people over politics and do what needs to be done to improve the lives of working class families, children, and everyone in the Tar Heel State. We congratulate and celebrate his victory, a victory for all North Carolinians

- Christina Cole, NCAE President,

The North Carolina Association of Educators (NCAE) is our leading voice for educational excellence, for children and their families, and for the public schools they count on. As the public school employees union and the largest association of professional educators in North Carolina, our membership extends to all 100 counties and includes teachers, classified school staff, administrators, students, retirees, and community allies. NCAE believes that every child has a right to a high-quality education, an excellent teacher, and a well-funded school.
