House Democrats Announce Leadership Positions

RALEIGH, N.C.— The North Carolina House Democratic Caucus elected a number of roles for the upcoming biennium during an organizational meeting in Raleigh today. The following Democrats were elected by their colleagues to serve in key leadership positions, which will be voted on by the full House of Representatives on January 13th.

Additional leadership positions will be announced in the coming weeks.

- Speaker: Rep. Robert Reives (House District 54—Chatham, Randolph)
- Speaker Pro Tem: Rep. Deb Butler (House District 18—New Hanover)
- Majority Leader: Rep. Terry Brown (House District 92—Mecklenburg)
- Deputy Majority Leader: Rep. Beth Helfrich (House District 98—Mecklenburg)
- Joint Caucus Chair: Rep. Phil Rubin (House District 40—Wake)
- Whip: Rep. Mary Belk (House District 88 — Mecklenburg)
- Whip: Rep. Gloristine Brown (House District 8—Pitt)
- Whip: Rep. Allison Dahle (House District 11— Wake)
- Whip: Rep. Jordan Lopez (House District 112—Mecklenburg)

- Whip: Rep. Marcia Morey (House District 30—Durham)

- Whip: Rep. Amos Quick (House District 58—Guilford)

Rep. Eric Ager (House District 114—Buncombe) and Rep. Allen Buansi (House District 56—Orange) will serve as Conference Chairs.

"Our House Democratic Caucus is ready to hit the ground running to make life more affordable for North Carolinians," Speaker-elect Robert Reives said. "We have a great leadership team and I look forward to working with them in the weeks ahead to prepare for the upcoming biennium."
